

Summary

TRAVELING FROM KORFU TO THESSALONIKI

“Traveling from Korfu to Thessaloniki” – war dairy of Tihomir Z. Mihajlovic since 1916 – 1918. is memoir prose about the First World War, with certified copy kept in VARIA collection of Historical Archives of Nis. The author of the diary is a peasant, originally coming from Prekadina village near Prokuplje, Toplica District, during the war - military clerk of the second company, first battalion of XIV infantry regiment of Timok division. In the Diary the author vividly and giftedly describes everyday war views and happenings, his own observations, nightmares...

This text is considered to be the secondary source and it is an interesting contribution to rich memoir literature on First World War.