

Summary

ETHICAL EDUCATION IN EARLIEST ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TEXTBOOKS IN SERBIA

The first Serbian books for elementary and middle school for reading classes, a spelling book and a reader, taught the children about and love towards God and fellow begins, through fables, proverbs and poems, as well as, through a description of characteristic examples of models of good behaviour. What can be concluded from the content of these books is that it was developed in the spirit of religious moral, as was the case of the Bible in relation to God, fellow begins, representatives of the state and in relation to work.

Serbian modern education started in 1884. when the first state education plans and programs were constituted.
