NEWSPAPER “VELIKA SRBIJA” ABOUT THE “KOLO SRPSKIH SESTARA” IN 1903

“Kolo srpskih sestara” was established in 1903 by prominent Serbian women, with an aim of helping Serbian people in Old Serbia and Macedonia, who were exposed to the violence by Turks, Arbanasians and Bulgarians. Historical sources about “Kolo srpskih sestara” were preserved in fragments, since the entire archive was burnt down during the World War I as to avoid falling into enemy hands. Precious data about the foundation and the work of this patriotic organization, we have discovered in the prints of that time. The work presents the foundation and the work of “Kolo srpskih sestara” through the prism of a newspaper “Velika Srbija” in 1903.
