

Summary

A COLLECTION OF INVITATIONS 1890-1941.

A collection of invitations from 1890 to 1941 is significant historiographic material for the study of the history and development of culture in the city of Niš. As a means of communication, in the sense of invitations to celebrations, parties, anniversaries, promotions, it has retained the vitality of an irreplaceable means of polite invitation.

Some of the invitations are almost two centuries old, but could be an inspiration to modern-day designers.
