

Summary

The personal fund of the engineer Vladislav Cvetanović

The family collection of documents was given to Archive as the present from Ilija Cvetanovic, the son of the engineer Vladislav Cvetanovic was born in Batocina in 1883 in a trading family. He graduated the faculty of technics in Germany. He came to Nis to serve the military in 1911 where he established his family and where he stayed until his death 1962. The work of the engineer Cvetanovic is related to Nis such as: he set the first telegraph station on the chimney of the railroad workshop, and he widened the hydroelectric power plant in St. Petka; he built the hydroelectric power plant in Sicevo, and worked on the electrification of Nis and near vilages, he installed the first radio-telephone and was the first subscriber.

He explored the radioactivity of thermal water in Niska Spa and he experienced his skills on the field of cosmic radiation.