

Summary

Memoir material on the First Serbian Uprising - contemporaries narrating about the events at Deligrad

In the work which is in front of us, the author talks about the time and the way he came upon the first official collection of the memoir material in the history of the new Serbian state which was being created in the XIX century. Out of this entirety created in 1841, we can see verbatim quoted parts which refer to Deligrad in the period from 1806-1813. This was aimed as a contribution to the celebration of the 200th anniversary of a significant defense of the rebellious Serbia from the so called “south direction”.
